Happy New Year, IAAND Members,

Thank you to all who have contributed to the eNews and Passport this past year. I hope that it has helped to connect our global nutrition community, and has served as a forum to foster interest and communication regarding nutrition across the globe. Check out this last issue of the eNews in 2018 for funding opportunities, global nutrition updates, and get to know our Country Representatives Chair, Melinda Boyd. Additionally, IAAND President Esther Myers previews some of the changes coming to IAAND in 2019!

Thank you again for your continued interest and support,

Ariana Haidari
Newsletter Editor

A Note from the President

Hello Fellow IAAND Members,

This year has flown by, and it seems impossible that we are getting ready to celebrate the beginning of a new year! As we look back on 2018, we can celebrate our achievements and make plans for an even better year in 2019.

In January, we will be asking for your input about what IAAND activities, services and products you value the most. Your responses to this short questionnaire will provide us with input on where to put our energy in the future. As you may recall, our strategic plan identified four broad areas of focus going forward:

- Enhance IAAND communications/member engagement
- Develop and Support IAAND Research initiatives and Collaborations
- Support Leadership development of IAAND Members
- Continually refine IAAND operational infrastructure and financial status

Watch for the e-mail invitation to participate. We need your input to be sure that IAAND is supporting activities within these focus areas that will be most useful to you in achieving your professional goals. We will also have incentives for your input - so watch for the details!

Proposed Bylaws Change - INPUT REQUESTED by JANUARY 3RD

Nutrition and Dietetics

From the Academy:

The Member Services Advisory Committee of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics is proposing two amendments to its bylaws. Review the proposed changes and let the Academy know if you support the two proposed changes by completing a survey.

This regards international members, so please do take the time to participate in the survey!

Call for Concept Papers - IAAND International Projects

DEADLINE: January 31

IAAND is now accepting concept papers for funding support for a research or a project. The research or project should related to nutrition and/or health promotion in diverse populations, be conducted by IAAND members in collaboration with other IAAND members and/or organizations, and to be conducted during the 2019 - 2020.

Other types of support may be requested, such as: recruiting participants, disseminating information, or providing experts from the IAAND membership.

After the concept has been reviewed and support by the Board of Delegates, the full proposal will be required. This must be submitted by a future deadline for external peer review.

Please submit your concept paper and any questions to projects@iaand.org

Submission deadline is January 31, 2019.

New member benefit coming soon! IAAND will be offering a new mini-grant to Country Representatives. This will provide funding to CRs to assist in setting up local networking events for IAAND members residing in their country.

We know networking can be hard when we have 1200+ members in 70+ countries, so these mini grants will be a way to support local networking. The focus of these meet ups will be networking, although there is the opportunity to support an educational component as well. We will be encouraging CRs to arrange meet ups in conjunction with local dietetic/nutrition association meetings to maximize IAAND member attendance benefit.

If you know of an upcoming opportunity for incorporating IAAND networking in your country, please reach out to your CR. All CR contact information is available here. Applications will be available from January 15-31. This will support local networking occurring between February and May 31, 2019.

IAAND Member Addresses Malnutrition

FAO/IFPRI event 'Accelerating the End of Hunger and Malnutrition' this past week in Bangkok, Thailand. Here, The 2018 Global Nutrition Report debuted, titled 'Shining a light to spur action on nutrition'.

This report highlights the global need and proposed solutions towards ending hunger and malnutrition and achieving SDG 2. Every country in the world is affected by malnutrition. Globally, 22.2% of children (150.8 million) are stunted, which leads to long term complications such as obesity, diabetes, and malnutrition.

However, we have never been better equipped to end malnutrition. We know more than ever, and countries around the world are beginning to prioritize nutrition policies and interventions. Click here to read the report in its entirety, including a proposed path forward.

Educational Stipends

IAAND is proud to offer $500.00 USD Educational Stipends to members who would like to attend a food/nutrition related conference and $1000 for members who are presenting. Awardees are members who qualify for the stipend and complete the application form according to the guidelines. IAAND members are encouraged to read about the criteria to see if they qualify for the stipend. To download the application (which includes the criteria), click HERE. All applications are submitted online.

For a conference held between Jun 1st –Dec 30th, the deadline for applying is May 31

For more information about this award, please contact the IAAND Member Services Chair at ncc@iaand.org.

New Enhanced Website Feature!

Academy www.eatright.org!

If you change your Academy log in information, it will automatically update the IAAND website within 24 hours. In the past, it was necessary to register for our website separately and create a username and password. Our Executive Director has been working with our technology company and with the Academy to connect the website databases so they can talk to each other.

Over half of the content on the IAAND website is password-protected, and available only to members after you log in from the "MEMBERS" navigation tab.
